

Yvonne Lockett

January 30, 1953 - January 18, 2021

Yvonne Lockett was born on January 30, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Daniel and Helen Irby. After a sudden illness she departed her life on January 18, 2021.

Once you knew Yvonne, you knew she was the best person anyone could have in their life. She cared greatly for her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

At the age of 14, Yvonne was adopted by the Harrison's, whom she loved deeply, James T. Harrison, Sr. and Mary Alice Harrison.

She worked at Western House as a contractor at a corporation in Hunt Valley for several years. She started this job at 21 years old and by 23 she was a supervisor. From there she went to work at Loyola University from May 7, 1990 and retired after 25 years on August 31, 2015.

Yvonne was a on point person when it came to taking care of business, she did not play. Mommie loved her music, she loved to dance, and gave good advice. She had a very strong heart, even in the midst of pain you would never know.

She was preceded in death by her sisters, Rosetta and Cordine; brother,

Melvin; and grandson, Donte W. Webb, Jr. (Webbie).

Yvonne leaves to cherish her loving memory: her husband, Geoffrey C. Lockett; son, Nathaniel Batty, Jr.; daughters, Antoinette Murphy, Danyell Lockett; son-in-law, Byron Murphy, Sr.; sisters, Margie Ann and Tuesica; grandchildren, Nathaniel III (PJ), Byron Jr. (By-By), Barry Jr. (Bam), Breshawn (Bre), and Breona (Bre); two great-grandchildren; sisters-in-law, Evelyn Custis and Bernadette Wooden; god sisters and brothers, Manuella, Antoinette, Rowenna, Edward, James, and Timothy; special friends, Grayzette Wilson, Rosemary King-Owens, Franklin Tilghman, and Pamela Reid; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

To my pastor Mo, my bonus daughter, my Louise, thanks for loving me, Your Thelma.
