

Zabarene Carmichael

June 1, 1942 - June 14, 2018

Zabarene Blackmore-Carmichael was born on June 1, 1942 to the late Eugene and Mary Blackmore. Zabarene fell asleep in death after a lengthy illness. Zabarene was affectionately known to her family and friends as “Zab” and “Zubbie”, which she received with a smile.

Zabarene was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She began her work life at a Bakery where she learn how to bake and decorate cakes. She used those skills on special occasions for the family. At a later time Zab became a Caregiver for a family who endear her until her retirement and until today.

Zabarene united in Holy Matrimony with the late Luther Carmichael over 50 years and from this union one son, the late Ira Douglas Carmichael.

Zab was loving and caring and would often place others before herself. She had an infectious smile and a dry sense of humor with a quickness to respond. She loved to decorate her house and give out decorating advice to anyone. She enjoyed shopping and cook-outs at her house.

Zab was a spiritual person, a reader of God Word. She was a Power Prayer and a member of the Inner Circle Prayer Warriors at the Truth and Life Worship Center under Pastor Darryl K. Ham. Zab loved to go on her daily Journey to love on and Minister People. She loved praying and talking of the Greatest and Miracles God had given and shown her. Prior to her declining health Zabarene attend New Elizabeth Baptist Church under Pastor Boyd whom she spoke fondly about. Zabarene Greatest Loves were God and her Family.

Preceded her in death was her devoted husband, Luther Carmichael and son, Ira Carmichael.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her sister, Frances A. Stafford and brother-in-law, Otto A. Stafford; one grandson, Ira Carmichael (Tichelle); two granddaughters, Latoya Carmichael and Tracy Day; eight great-grands, Taylor Harmon, Jadelyn Anthony, DreShaun Carmichael, Dominic Bullock, Ira Carmichael III, James Anthony III, Juliette Michelle Carmichael and Karsyn Carmichael; a longtime friend, Mary Ann McClellan; special nephews, Joseph Carmichael and John England; three loving nieces, Sheila, Giselle and Otea, which they shared old memories together, visited daily and loved her a lot; a loving friend who's like a daughter, Denise; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
