“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, I am so sorry you lost your loved one in death. Death is truly a difficult thing to go through, and only Jehovah God can give us the comfort we need, and also restore the life back to our loved ones. This he has promised to do by means of the resurrection. John 5:28,29 tells us, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." one day he promises we will see our loved ones again. May that hope sustain you in the days and years ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
