

Baby Zaiden Derek Damon

October 1, 2013 - October 18, 2013

ZAIDEN D. DAMON, son of Dominic D. Damon and Denaira T. Lee, was born on October 1, 2013 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on October 18, 2013. Zaiden was a blessing, Mom and Dad's miracle baby. Eighteen days is short for many but for us it was eighteen days of joy. He wasn't too alert, but he had his ways of letting us know that he could feel our presence. He would peek at us with those bright eyes and squeeze our fingers with all his might. He even fought a little by pulling away. For eighteen days I saw the joy he put on everyone's face. Yes we are sad and even mad, but we thank God for giving us the honor to meet one of His special Little Angels. He leaves to mourn: both parents, Denaira T. Lee and Dominic D. Damon; four sisters, Zariyah Taylor, Kayla Damon, Trinity Damon and Daiyona Damon; one brother, Dominic Davonne Damon; grandmothers, Carolyn Overby and Tammy Lee; nine uncles, one aunt and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *To the family of Baby Zaiden Derek Damon:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
