

Zane P. Harris

December 6, 1956 - July 25, 2003

Suddenly on July 25, 2003, Zane Pierre Harris departed this life. Zane was the youngest of two children born to Charles and Bernice Harris. He attended elementary school in Baltimore and later attended Garrison Jr. High and Forest Park Senior High School. He continued his education at Baltimore Community College. Zane left college to care for his mother, whose health was in decline. In March 1999, Zane met the love of his life, Marshella Jerette Thorton (affectionately known as "Lucy"). The two sweethearts were inseparable and became wedded in holy matrimony on September 28, 2001. Zane was truly a child of God. He moved easily amongst this earth embracing creatures great and small. He loved his family, his job and his pets. His wife and soul mate, Lucy, said that with Zane, there was never a dull moment, he always kept you laughing. His cousin Judith said that Zane was always the life of the party. In his spare-time, he enjoyed watching the TV show "COPS" and enjoyed playing with his cat "Bootsie". He also loved having his nieces and nephews over to play "video games". Most of all, he enjoyed spending time with Lucy. When not spending time with family and friends, they would take a ride on the light rail and explore different parts of the city. Zane is survived by his loving wife, Lucy; cousins, Aubrey and Regina Sanders; one son, Zane Pierre Harris, Jr.; two stepsons, Desmond and Corey; two grandchildren, Dominique and Danielle; a devoted mother-in-law, Ms. Emma Thorton, five sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law, many nieces and nephews and a host of friends and relatives.
