

Zelma Lindsay

March 5, 1925 - April 9, 2015

ZELMA LINDSAY, daughter of the late princess Blackmon and Ruby Roxanne Duncan, was born on March 5, 1925 in Charlotte, North Carolina. She departed this life on April 9, 2015.

She received her education in the Baltimore City School System. She was employed through Baltimore City Public Schools for 22 years as a cashier. At an early age, she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. She joined Morning Star Baptist Church in 1940. After attending other churches to get her spiritual comfort, she searched and found New Pleasant Grove Missionary Church and became a faithful member until her health failed.

In 1943, she married John C. Lindsay and out of this union they had four children, John C. Lindsay Jr. (deceased), Princess Lindsay (deceased), Ruby N. Beard (deceased) and Shirley Mikes.

Zelma enjoyed sewing, crocheting, cooking, traveling, and sitting on the porch enjoying her neighbors. She had a jovial spirit, great personality, and was welcoming to all that came to her home.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving daughter, Shirley Mikes; grandchildren, Thomasina (Bunny) Lindsay, John Lindsay (John John), Sharon Lindsay, Jacqueline Beard-Lowery, Ramon Lindsay, Jason Lindsay

(deceased) and Martin J. Mikes; a host of great-grandchildren, son-in-law, daughter-in-laws, cousins, other relatives and friends.
