

Zelma M. Johnson

October 3, 1905 - November 2, 2002

Zelma M. Johnson was born October 3, 1925. She was the oldest of three children of the late James Mason and Elsie Atkinson. Zelma passed quietly from this life to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, on Saturday, November 2, 2002 at age 97. Zelma graduated in 1923 from the Baltimore City Public School System. She attended Coppin Normal School (now Coppin State College), and received her bachelor's degree in Education. Zelma taught for many years in the Baltimore City School System. Later in life, she operated her own hair salon and finally became a homemaker after leaving the Anne Arundel Public School System. Zelma was married on July 1, 1925, to the late Walter L. Johnson, Sr. No children were born from this union, however, in July 1958, Zelma and Walter adopted four children Toni, Aaron, Andre (deceased), and Walter, Jr. Zelma was raised in the Catholic faith. She attended Our Lady of Lourdes Roman Catholic Church for many years until she moved to Anne Arundel County. One of her favorite religious programs was the Billy Graham Crusade. Zelma never missed a program. One evening while watching Billy Graham, Zelma accepted Jesus as her personal Savior. She said she wanted to be saved and that she had never heard of this being spoken of in the Catholic Church. Zelma favorite hobbies were reading and fishing. She was an avid reader and had an extensive vocabulary. She leaves to rejoice in her memory, one daughter, Toni Hunter, two sons, Aaron Johnson and Walter Johnson Jr., one son-in-law, Ralph Hunter, two daughter-in-laws, Sharon Johnson and Darlene Johnson, five grandchildren, other close family members, Vaughan, Jesse, Dexter, Ellen, Denise, Ebbie, Corrine and a faithful and devoted Christian caregiver, Elia Long.
