“ Hello ! Garrett's ! May I send condolence to you all, the family & friend in your recent loss of Zina. When life circle is broken it hurts. We all have lost some one in death and knows the feeling. Our creator care about you all as 1 Peter 5:7 say , and is there to give comfort in all your tribulations in these last days as the bible at 2 Cor. 1:3. Imagine the happiness to be your when the dead are resurrected in the near future. I hope these thoughts will uplift to read and share. May all the precious and cherished memories of Zina support you all in life journey ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I offer my condolences for your loss. I know your hearts are grieving at this time, but please remember that we have a loving heavenly father who knows our pain and sorrow, and he has promised to end sickness and death in the very near future. As Isaiah 25,8 promises: "The Sovereign Lord Jehovah will actually swallow up death forever, and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. "And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, because Jehovah himself has spoken it." One day all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of God's Son Jesus and will come out; to a resurrection of life." John 5:28,29 May the promise of the resurrection help you to cope with your loss in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. My husband Joe and I have received much comfort from the Bible through the death of our loved ones. (Romans 15:4) I would like to share some of this comfort with you. The Bible holds out a wonderful prospect of our loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5, 2 Peter 3:13) Acts 24:15 declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength as you think about this sure hope from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
