

Zollie Jean Woodson

November 22, 1933 - May 18, 2005

Zollie Jean Jefferys Woodson was born November 22, 1933 to the late Zollie Jefferys and the late Johnsie Jefferys Hargrave in Rockingham, North Carolina. She departed this life at her home on Wednesday, May 18, 2005. At the age of 12, Zollie confessed Christ as her personal Lord and Savior at the Church of God in Christ, in Rockingham. The second of four children, Zollie was educated in the North Carolina Public School System and graduated from Rockingham High School. After graduating from high school, Zollie moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she lived with her mother, step-father, the late John Hargrave, along with her three siblings. Zollie married the late James Woodson in 1963 and they resided in Baltimore, Maryland. Zollie and James lived a rich and full life, often traveling together to Virginia or other areas to visit family and friends. She worked for many years as a supervisor for Baltimore Uniform Rental, Inc. In later years, Zollie returned to the workforce as a receptionist at Villa Julie College in Baltimore. Known for her humor and quick wit, Zollie could always be counted on to keep family and friends laughing, no matter the situation. Bernie, as she was affectionately known, was a great cook and could often be found in the kitchen preparing a "Sunday dinner" most any day of the week, and for years hosted many family gatherings. Her doors were open to any family member who needed somewhere to stay, whether for a night or a month. Most recently, following the death of one of her nieces, April Brown, Zollie opened her home and her heart to care for April's son, Joseph Fox. For the past eleven months, Zollie was a second grandmother to Joe, caring for him and treating him as though he were her own son. Zollie was preceded in death by her brother Don Ameche Jefferys and husband James Woodson, but leaves to cherish her memories: sisters, Doris V. Walker of Upper Marlboro, Maryland and Hazel Brown of Baltimore, Maryland; two brothers-in-law, Harold Walker and William Brown; two sisters-in-law, Goodie Woodson and Ethel Woodson of Baltimore, Maryland; several nieces and nephews; devoted friends, Barbara Jefferies and Monique Muir and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ There are no words I can say or write that will soothe the hurt you feel at this time. Only faith in God and time heals the pain. If there is anything I can do to help, I'm more than willing. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Trust in God He is our strength.##imported-begin##Marion T. Carter##imported-end##

“ I send my condolences to all those grieving over this great loss. The Bible offers us a comfort we can truly hold dear. John 5:28,29 tells us that we will be able to see our dead loved ones alive again in a resurrection of the righteous and unrighteous alike. Finally, God will give us pleasant conditions to live in (Rev. 21:4). May you be comforted.##imported-begin##Kendra A##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
