

Zoma M. Sheffey

November 6, 1912 - November 3, 2001

I have done my best in the race, I have run the full distance, and I have kept the faith. And, now, there is waiting for me the victory prize of being put right with God, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on that day-and not only to me, but to all those who wait with love for Him to appear. Zoma Sheffey, daughter of the late Louvon and Lillie Boston Millard, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on November 6, 1912. She departed this life on November 3, 2001. Zoma received her education at the Biddle Street School, St Barnabas School and the old "Colored Vocational School.' She married Robert Luster Sheffey at an early age and remained a dutiful wife and homemaker until his death. Zoma was known for her hospitality and made especially good cole slaw and sugar cookies. Zoma was warm person always seeking to give counsel. Noted for her beauty, she surrounded herself with beautiful things and maintained a beautiful home. She will surely be missed. Zoma Sheffey is survived by a host of relatives and friends. Respectfully submitted by, Agnes Welch and Miriam Dixon
